

1:1 Bespoke EFT Script Offering

The ultimate, personalised service for anyone wanting to deep dive into a specific mindset block that is holding them back from what they desire.

What will you experience?

To begin, I will gather your innate design blueprints through my multi-modality approach to harness the linguistics that will speak to you in a way I cannot even describe!

We then work together for x2 1:1 coaching sessions specifically designed to unlock the block or blocks that are holding you back and honing into what you want and more importantly, how you want to feel doing it. The 1:1 sessions allow me to really get to know your journey and forms the basis of me working my magic to craft your bespoke EFT sequence.

I then go away and craft your personalised EFT script drawing in from all of the design and session unfoldings to then create a bespoke recording for you to use in your practice for as long as you choose too.

Next steps...

I invite you to take time to breath and be still as you contemplate the above, feel into the offering experiences and trust you will know what is perfect and correct for you.

If it feels good to you, let's see if we are the right fit for each other.
