

1:1 Coaching Signature Offering: 18 weeks- 12month Containers

I'll be honest, the reality is that pivoting your life and career can feel hard and having self-confidence and clarity within that space is an illusion!

Clarity is not about having all the answers. It is about you having the inner guidance and vision to step into action even when your external world is questioning your choices.

My guidance brings safety into what can feel unsafe during a transition as I guide you through refining your skills so you are equipped for not only navigating the changes you are facing, but how to continue to thrive on the other side.

What will you experience?

Firstly, you're going to get a personalised Activation Report, sharing what I believe are your foundations for the refinery within your identity and environment that stems from your unique design, keys, genius and circumstance.

Secondly, a bespoke EFT sequence recording that pulls together your genius, light and shadows so that it linguistically speaks to you on a level like no other. This gives you the solid foundation for transformation and application throughout your journey.

Thirdly, weekly or bi-weekly 1:1 sessions are a connection like no other. Be seen as the person you are and who you are becoming, challenge your thinking and feel supported in a powerful container to guide your transformation. In order for a transition to evolve in a way where you excel and meets your innate desires, I ensure a coaching relationship is consistently empowered and connected so the troubles get troubleshooted, the highs get celebrated, and your path gets created.

People work with me because I can identify where there is constriction and a sense of limitation that is causing discord. I then work intensively with my clients to reduce the state, length and process of any transition they are going through. Together we create the catalyst to take action to unlock your ultimate fulfilment.

In addition to the above you also get high touch coaching/ advisory between sessions via Telegram and access to my online EFT Tapping portal and range of resources for personal and business growth.

Next steps...

I invite you to take time to breath and be still as you contemplate the above, feel into the offering experiences and trust you will know what is perfect and correct for you.

If it feels good to you, let's see if we are the right fit for each other.
